

KEVIN IN THE WOODS is the first Urban Outdoor Concept Store, located since 2015 in the very heart of Zurich, in the new fashion and lifestyle district Europaallee. We bring a unique take on urban high street fashion with outdoor inspired functionality to Zurich. The store offers a premium range of selected brands and high-quality products for a dynamic, urban and active lifestyle.

As of now or as per agreement we are seeking a motivated

Sales Associate Premium Fashion 20-50% (m/w/d)

Your responsibilities:

- You provide individual style and product advice for our international customer clientele and sell our high-quality products with a strong focus to do business
- You assist with store management and ensure a high-class store presentation at all times
- You manage merchandise deliveries and secure the supply of goods in the store
- You ensure tidiness and cleanliness in the store and in our warehouse
- You support social media activities and special projects as needed

Your profile:

- You are a true team player with passion for fashion and a strong interest in functional fabrics
- You have a proactive, goal-oriented working style and a high service orientation
- You are contact-friendly, your mentality is hands-on and you have an eye for details
- You are absolutely trustworthy as well as reliable and you are well organized
- You communicate fluently in German and English and you have good computer skills
- You are flexible and can work on Saturdays, Fridays and preferable Tuesdays

We are a small and passionate team and you will be an important part of it. We offer close cooperation in a varied area of responsibility as well as room for personal development. After successful onboarding you will receive your personal store outfits and you can shop in the store with an attractive discount.

If this is you, we are happy to meet you! Please send your application (Motivation letter, CV, certificates) to Marco Karim El Haddachi, CEO, jobs@kevininthewoods.com.